FIVE HUNDRED RUSH WORK AT ARLINGTON PARK

It will not be long before the race crowds will be coming to Arlington Park. The crowds, only in smaller number, are already there. One hundred and fifty horses are now in the stables and there is a waiting list of 500 for stable quarters. An army of workmen, numbering over 500 are busy putting on the finishing touches. Mr. Brown says that the work will be completed a week before the opening, which seems difficult to realize as every day some new project is started. In order to facilitate the work, all visitors are barred from the park. There is too much danger that they will be run over, by either horses, workmen, trainers or rollers.

E. R. Bradley, whose stable won the Kentucky derby, arrived Tuesday with ten horses and the following day his trainer returned south to bring up another lot.

Woman Directs Club Rooms
Mrs. McLaughlin, wife of Major McLaughlin, has assumed responsibility for the club house. It is being remodeled, redecorated and otherwise made more artistic which will make it the most beautiful race club house in the world. It will, hereafter, be used exclusively for members. The front terrace is being paved with brick and a spacious lawn of green sod was laid Monday.

The passenger elevators for the club house are now in operation. Perhaps the greatest advantage of all that the club members will appreciate will be their private entrance to the park direct from Euclid avenue around the track to the club house. A large unloading platform for club members is now under construction.

The general public will appreciate changes made in the grandstand. An addition is being built which will connect the two public ramps and enable the visitor to leave either part of the grandstand from the main floor and reach his train without passing in the course of autos. Direct connection from trains to the stand, itself is thus afforded.

The front terrace and all walks have been paved with macadam that is especially treated so that there will be no dust or dirt.

Space for additional mutuels have been provided, especially in the club house, where a special section will be reserved for the ladies.

$40,000 For Landscaping
A total of $40,000 is spent for floral decorations and landscaping at the park. One of the show places will be the giant letters in flowers and shrubbery opposite the grandstand, reading "American National Jockey Club" and "Arlington Park."

The finishing touches is being put on the mile track and the steeple chase has been started.

The paddock, with its individual grandstands, will be used this year for the first time. Tubing is now being laid from the judges stand to these smaller club houses, where the results will be known almost before it is announced on the large bulletin board before the grandstand. Special mutuels will also be provided at the paddock for the placing of wagers.

The entire parking space is being covered with macadam and rolled and there will be space for 30,000 automobiles. The many large trees that have been set out in the landscaping of the park, appear to be in a healthy condition.

Arlington Heights Loses Irving Park

The Arlington Heights baseball team lost to Irving Park A. C. on Sunday by a score of 7 to 4. Frank and Bolte was the battery. The locals played good ball, but could secure no hits until too late in the game to do them much good. The name of "Bill" Koppila may not appear on the box score, but he does his bit in entertaining the crowd. His ready wit is the spice of the game. With a few more fans like Mr. Koppila, Arlington Heights would be able to support a real ball park.

Racing Endangers
Lives of the High School Scholars

Only the lucky hand of fate saved from serious injuries to three high school pupils of Palatine Wednesday night. Their car, a Studebaker sedan rolled over into a deep ditch upon the south side of the highway, a mile west of Palatine. The car was being driven by Alfred Grever, his companions being his sisters, Vermette Grever and Lucella Springguth. All three escaped without bodily injuries, although the top of the car was a complete wreck. Their escape seemed little short of miraculous.

They were on the way to attend the music festival at Barrington. In attempting to pass a Palatine car, driven by Harry Toppel, the Studebaker skidded and went off the road. When the passengers in the other car saw the accident they returned, assisted the three out of their wreck and took them directly to the home of Ang Grever on Rand road, where a physician's examination disclosed only minor bruises.

Tuition Receipts Amount To $4600 Past Year At Arlington Heights School

Supt. V. I. Brown of the Arlington Heights Township High School, compiled the figures this week for the tuition that the district will be entitled to receive from the non high school territory. It amounts to over $4,600. About $300 will be received from Lake County, the balance is due from the Cook county board. This is the largest number of tuition pupils ever enrolled in Arlington Heights and the amount to be received is a thousand dollars more than the interest charges on the recent $75,000 bond issue.

TO GIVE AWAY DOWN PAYMENT ON BUNGALOW

The down payment of $1,000.00 on the Cook County Herald Dream Bungalow is to be given away Sunday afternoon. All of those who have registered their names in the book at the Dream Bungalow should be present if they are interested in this wonderful gift. Those who have not registered their names still have an opportunity, but they must have their names in before the drawing, which will take place about four thirty p. m. next Sunday.

Every one will have an equal chance, providing of course they are able to carry the monthly payments on the home.

The "Dream Bungalow" is considered one of the best of its kind. Nothing has been left out. The market value of this home is $12,500.00, and with the $1,000.00 down payment given free, there will be a balance of $11,500.00. According to many Chicago contractors this home is worth approximately $13,500.00. The home itself is so large that it was necessary to take a lot and a half on which to build it.

Although the home is to be given away next Sunday, it will remain open until the following Sunday so that every one will have the opportunity to inspect it.

Dozens of homes are going up around the "Dream Bungalow" as the result of the Cook County Herald's home promotion program, and the Cook County Herald is indeed proud of the fact that the "Dream Bungalow" exhibition has been such a huge accomplishment. All of these new homes which are springing up like the proverbial tent city, will range in cost from $10,000.00 to $15,000.00 each.

There have been few subdivisions built up as fast as the Charles P. Gray properties on the south side of town, where the Herald "Dream Bungalow" is located. Two years ago, the far south side was little more than a prairie, where today, scores of beautiful homes are an actuality. Property values are increasing rapidly, and it is gratifying to see some of the old timers cashing in on their acreage.

Don't forget to be at the Herald's Dream Bungalow Sunday afternoon. You may be the proud possessor of one of the most beautiful homes, not only in Arlington Heights, but the whole northwest side of Chicago.

The "Dream Bungalow" is completely furnished by Stadtman Bros. of Arlington Heights, and is located on South Mitchell street.

Roof Garden Features Super Business Block

The Otto Landmeier business block, now in course of construction is the largest building that was constructed in one unit in the Arlington Heights business district. There are many unusual features about the building, chief of which is a roof garden.

Mr. Landmeier is not making any arrangements for restaurant service or an orchestra but there is sure to be some tenant with a good radio who will furnish the entertainment for the dozen or more families who will have access to the garden. The roof garden will adjoin the new Landmeier building and will be on the roof of the restaurant building which is also owned by Mr. Landmeier and partly used by him as a storage house. It will be reached by a steel staircase, will have board walks and other conveniences.

The speed that is being made in its construction by Contr. Schaefer is attracting considerable attention. While the dimensions of 61x90 may not mean much to the ordinary man, the extensiveness of the building may be realized when one is told that there are 175,000 brick used in its construction; that 20,000 pounds of steel was used; 3,000 feet of half inch conduit for electric work; 1 1/4 carloads of rock lath and untold amount of piping for heating, sewage and other purposes. The building will contain 14 apartments, each of which will be equipped with its own phone connections, speaking tube to the hallway, individual mail box; electric refrigeration; built-in gas stove, a few with in-door beds.

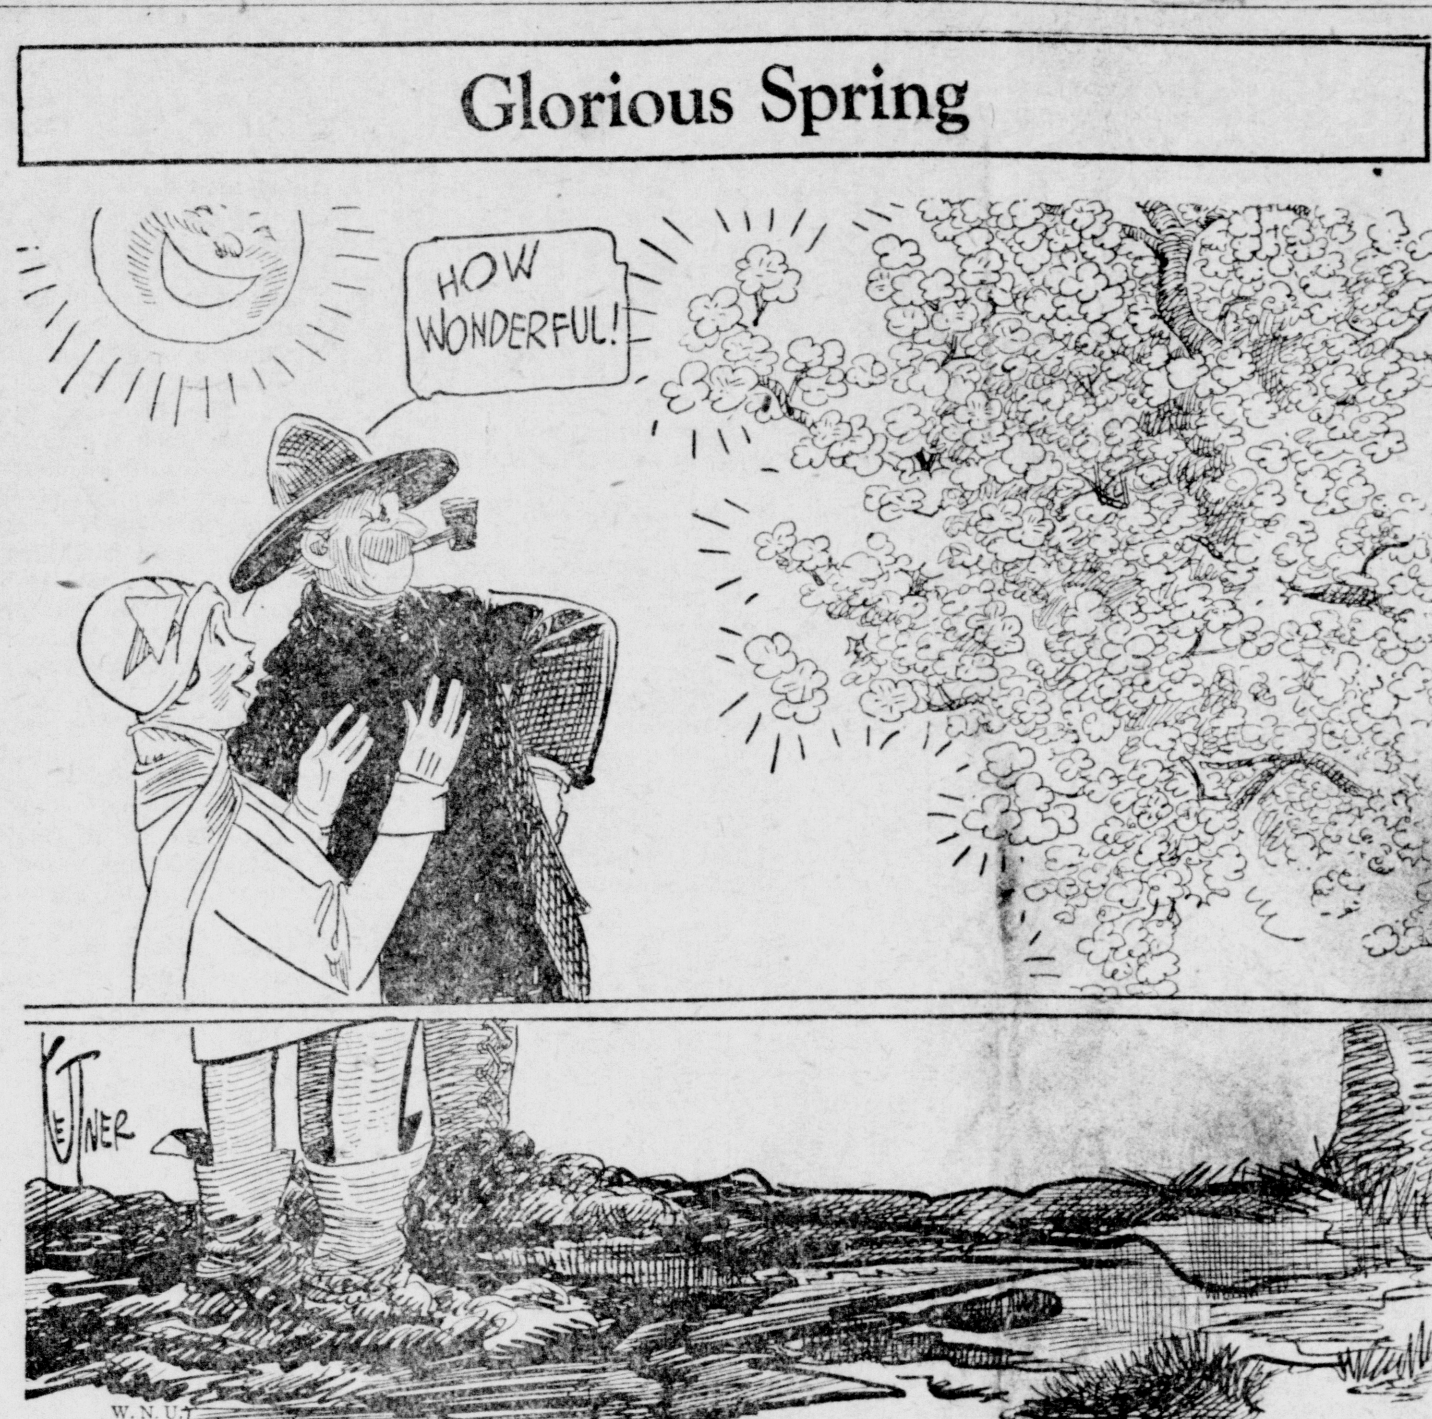

There will be fourteen bath rooms with 18 electric gas meters will be necessary in the basement.

A tenant in this house, can quarrel with his wife and the neighbors will not know what it is about, because the floors and partitions will be decorated with proper materials. The upper ceiling of the third floor will contain an insulated air space to keep out the heat and cold. Steel is being used wherever possible in the construction. Every room will have direct ventilation with the open air, large courts being constructed to make such an arrangement possible.

The Melodia Ladies Choir of St. Peter's Ev. Lutheran church of Arlington Heights will present a play "Such a Girl," a 3-act comedy by G. L. Wind. Music by Landeck's orchestra. Bring the whole family. You will laugh yourself happy. Friday evening, May 18, and Saturday evening, May 19, at the school hall. Tickets at Sieburg's drug store.

FIND MURDERER IN ARLINGTON

Robert White, of Elko, Nevada, was at Gordon's place near the race track at Arlington Heights Wednesday night on a charge of murder. Two fellow workmen were held several hours at the detective bureau, while a third companion guided the detectives to Arlington Heights and the man they wanted. White's desire to get his mail led to his capture.

According to press dispatches from New York, Mrs. Kathryn White, 32 years old, of Elko, Nev., was arrested in the Cornish Arms, a New York hotel Wednesday and was held as a fugitive from justice. She and her husband, Robert, who was still at large at the time of his wife's arrest, are charged with the murder in Elko, on May 6, of Louis LaVell, who was shot to death and his body cremated. Detectives who arrested her found a steamship ticket for Ireland in the room. She had $500 in her possession, while White arrived in Arlington Heights Monday and securing a room at the home of Mrs. Szasz on South Dunton street, paid his board for a week in advance, taking his meals at the restaurant conducted by Mrs. Szasz. Mrs. Szasz first thought he was a detective, as he was well dressed and had very little to say. He acted nervous, ate little and gave the impression that he was under mental strain. Outside of working hours, he spent his time in his own room. He was laid off at the race track Wednesday noon and that evening moved to the Gordon place.

In the meantime, three fellow workmen who were going to Chicago that day were asked to stop at the Marion hotel and ask for White's mail. Two of them remained outside of the hotel, while the third, A. Hauch, stepped up to the clerk and made the inquiry. As he gave the name of Robert White, two detectives stepped up and took him into custody. Upon leaving the hotel, the two waiting companions were also taken and locked up, awaiting the capture of White. From Hauch the officers secured the information as to the whereabouts of White and he accompanied a large auto load of detectives, with machine guns and revolvers to Arlington Heights.

They were first guided to the Szasz home, where they rushed in, and the room that had been occupied by White, only to find that he had left. The appearance of the detectives with their armor upon the streets of Arlington Heights created a lot of curiosity and led to many rumors. At the restaurant, the detectives learned the probable whereabouts of the man wanted for murder and a little later found him.

Firemen Offer to Donate Services As Election Officials

The members of the Arlington Heights fire department are eager for that new fire truck, they have offered to donate without cost to the village their services as election officials for the special election which will be held June 2 for the purpose of voting on a bond issue.

Glorious Spring

NEWS-O-PHOBIA

Nothing about something—something about everything—everything about nothing.

See by Wednesday's Cook County Herald that the leading candidates in the 7th district are Mrs. Lokes, Propper and Congressman Springer. What do you think of a system which makes Springer an unsuccessful third with a vote of 38,120 and let a Democrat with only 8,000 votes become the third representative from this district. Yet by an arrangement of politicians one of our three representatives must be a democrat no matter how few votes he has. This is no tirade against Democrats but against politicians who ignore the vote of the people.

Lowden hints that if the farm block is ignored by the Republicans in the middle west, which is both dry and Protestant, will vote for a wet and a Catholic. Yes and if the convention puts up a third rate candidate, Al Smith will sweep the county, wet and dry Protestant and Catholic, North and South, East and West.

KILLED BY TRAIN AT MT. PROSPECT

Erick Kroener, 45 years old, of 604 W. Madison St., Chicago, was instantly killed Thursday morning at 3:43 standard time by train No. 534 a hundred feet east of the Mt. Prospect depot. The man was walking east and evidently did not hear the train, although the whistle was sounded many times. The man only had 97 cents in his pockets.

The remains were taken to the LaSalle & Oehler undertaking parlors at Des Plaines, where the inquest will be held Friday morning. The only witnesses were three colored boys who attested to the above facts.

Oil scandals prosecution involves a tremendous amount of work as seen in the 700,000 words made part of the eight-weeks record of the Sinclair-Burns contempt case. Recording alone cost the government about $160 a day. To date the oil records contain 1,600,000 words spread over 6,000 pages. Evidence submitted to the Federal Trade Commission on the first day it opened its power trust probe included a truckload of documents.

Division Three Festival May 29

The annual festival for all the schools in division three will be held in the Glenview Forest Preserve Tuesday, May 29. A good program is being planned by Mr. Aken and the chairman of the three classes of schools. Class C schools consists of all one room schools and H. W. Gudgeons is chairman of this class. Class B schools consist of all two and three room schools, and Jane Stenson is the chairman of this class, and Class A schools consist of all over three rooms and E. C. Huckleberry is the chairman of this class. These chairmen will have charge of all the athletic events and appoint their own assistants in their class of schools. No two judges are permitted to serve if they be from the same school district. Judges will be selected by lot. There will be races for boys and girls, high and broad jump for boys in all classes. Flag races and blind fold races for girls in Class C schools. Northbrook boys will cross bats with Morton Grove again for the championship in a five inning game and the Glenview girls will play the Niles Center team again this year. Niles Center has won and lost a game to Glenview girls and the game this year will be a very interesting one. The ages in all Class A and B schools are as follows: Under 8, under 10, under 12, under 14, under 15, while the ages in Class C schools are under 9, under 12, over 12. Each teacher in class C schools and each principal in Class A and B schools have been given a copy of the rules and program of races by the director of education or the chairman of their class of schools. The band has not been engaged at the present time but as soon as it is the announcement and program of the days events will be furnished the press.

The health contest will begin probably before noon so as to be completed before the ball games start. There will be another game of ball in class B schools and the boys' and girls' teams that will play will be announced later.

COUNTRY TOWNS ARE FAVORED IN TAX ASSESSMENT

The big increase in taxes for large parts of Chicago resulted in a demand for a revaluation of real estate assessments. The state tax commission ordered that such action be taken, in Cook county. Chicago now claims that the country towns of Cook county have been favored in the spreading of the assessments and they do not know what to do about it.

"It is true that whereas in Chicago we try to fix the tax value at 40 per cent of the actual value, in the country towns the assessed valuation is nearer 15 per cent than 40 per cent of the real value," said John E. Conroy, chairman of the board of assessors.

"That, however, is because each of the thirty townships in Cook county outside Chicago has its own assessor, who fixes valuations. We have asked those local assessors to make a general increase, but they had no hesitation in refusing."

Political bad luck would attend any of the five members of the board of assessors and the three members of the board of review who might seek to override the action of the local assessor, it was explained. Therefore, it was agreed the suburbanite can give his Chicago neighbor the laugh in the present series of complaints against high taxes.

The order of the state tax commission for a reassessment has added to the confusion, it was explained because county officials have been unable to determine from the wording of the order just what must be done. There is a question as to whether the 1927 valuations must be revised or whether realizing the 1928 valuations will be sufficient.

A half dozen lawyers met recently with the officials and a half dozen different opinions resulted. They adjourned without having solved the problem.

Mrs. Wichman Writes Of Good Times In Europe; Home Soon

Mrs. Wm. Wichman, who is visiting Germany and other points in Europe writes the Herald that she will have many interesting things to tell her friends when she returns.

By this time she has probably taken an aeroplane to Paris, which she desired to reach in the same manner as did Lindy, except that she does not expect quite such a big welcome. However, she praised highly the courtesy that is shown her everywhere. She has found many good friends, and says that Arlington Heights is not the only City of Good Neighbors.

Places visited by her recently were Rodenburg and Breterfeld, where she saw scenery which she thinks equals that on the way to California. She was so busy having a good time, she forgot to book passage for the June 6 boat and will wait until the first of July. She closed her letter with best regards to all in Arlington Heights.

Local Bowlers Roll In Chicago Tourney

The Arlington Heights and Palatine bowlers were needed to transport the forty Arlington Heights bowlers Tuesday night to the Rmco alleys, Chicago, where the locals bowled in the Herald-Examiner tournament. The boys were treated to music in both buses and it was a gay party that arrived at the alleys. With a concertina and a few harmonicas the ride took on the appearance of a picnic stag. None of the boys brought home their scores, so we will have to leave that until some other time.

Library Board Accounts For Years Expenditures

The library board of the Arlington Heights public library had a total of $1,263.02 to spend last year and the expenditures were distributed as follows:

Rent	$208.00
Librarian	417.00
Books	385.64
Magazines	26.90
Supplies	84.41
Insurance	13.14
Printing	66.85
Slides	8.82
Drayage	6.62
Signs	23.65

The board organized last week with the same officers as follows: President, John Y. Beatty; secretary, F. J. Sachs; treasurer, Arthur McElhose. N. M. Beatty is chairman of the book committee.

The board wishes to call attention to a special summer ruling. When going on vacation, one person may draw as many as eight books to be kept for four weeks. This may be done only once during the season and it must be stated when the books are drawn that they are to be kept four weeks.

It is getting so the best the newspapers can do is to tell where Colonel Lindbergh was last.

Northwest Highway Closed to Traffic At Arlington Heights

Detour signs are up at Arlington Heights for traffic on the Northwest highway. Efforts of the contractor to construct the new pavement at the junction of the highway and Euclid street without interfering with the traffic proved unavailing and the road was closed between Wilke road and Vail street Wednesday afternoon.

It is hoped that some way will be found to open the road before the customary three weeks.

K. GUSTAFSON PRINCIPAL AT PALATINE

The board of education of District 15 met Thursday evening and elected Kenneth Gustafson, of the Arlington Heights grade school as principal of the Palatine school next year. Mr. Gustafson, in the opinion of the board members, is ideally suited for the position which calls for a multitude of duties. The committee investigated thoroughly the work Mr. Gustafson had been doing in Arlington Heights and feels that the newly elected principal has the qualifications needed in the principal, who will direct the branching out of the local school will be able to do now that they will have needed room with the departure of the high school from their building.

Palatine people are probably interested in learning just who Mr. Gustafson really is. He is a graduate of the State Teachers College at De Kalb and is taking extension work at the University of Chicago for his degree. He is planning to attend the summer course at De Kalb this year, and has had three years experience at Arlington Heights.

As regards his other attainments, he has proven himself to be a leader among the boys, his new boy scout troop under his direction, directed a winning team in athletics and teaches manual training.

Arlington Heights To Have New Shoe Store Next Fall

The Bolte shoe store which is the second oldest business establishment in Arlington Heights will go out of existence when Mr. E. H. Bolte disposes of the last of his shoe stock. Two of his nephews, the grandsons of the original proprietor will open a new shoe store in the Krause building in the quarters that will be vacated and it will take him until the new store opens before he expects to have his stock cut down to a moving point. Great as have been his sales the past few months, there remain in stock an equal number of shoes.

There is some old history in connection with Bolte shoe store, which was originally established by Mr. Henry Bolte, in 1875 in store quarters of the building that is now occupied by Otto Bolte as his home. In 1882 Mr. Bolte moved to a store building adjoining the present Wagon market. Three years later, with the death of his competitor in business, Fred Ulrich, Mr. Bolte for $3100 purchased the Bolte corner and shoe store. He moved his own store building across the street to his new property. The corner building which was also used as a postoffice was later moved to Vail avenue and is now occupied as a residence by Henry Bolte. It was in 1897 that the present brick block lately purchased by W. Sieburg was erected.

Ed Bolte purchased his father's interests in 1901, making subsequent improvements with which the present generation is familiar.

The only other business of a greater age in the Heights, is that of Klehm's groceries, which was established in 1858.

Infant Welfare Mothers Plan Another Bake Sale

The mothers interested in Infant Welfare Clinics will meet next Tuesday evening at the health center for the purpose of considering means to raise further funds to meet the expenses of the monthly baby clinic. Another bakery sale will probably be announced. On account of the recent change in train schedule, the clinics begin at two o'clock instead of one o'clock as formerly.

The monthly health clinic was held Monday and was well attended.

"Mother Mine" Postponed Account Of Sickness

The play "Mother Mine" to be presented by the trustees of the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church has been indefinitely postponed on account of the number of cases of sickness.

The presentation date of the play was next week, May 24 and 25. Ever since the cast began practicing, they have been handicapped by illness of individual members and when their director, Mrs. Lillian Draper Klehm also became ill, it was decided to postpone the play.

DIVISION ONE FESTIVAL TO BE AT DEER GROVE

Deer Grove returns as the site of the school festival for division one of the Cook county rural schools. The first festival ever held in Cook county was originally held at that place and a return to that popular place preserve will be welcomed news to a great many of the school children, especially those in Barrington and Palatine townships. The date has been set for Thursday, May 24. The features of this school festival will be the horseshoe pitching contest, the indoor baseball games between four schools, the harmonica chorus, and the judging of the health champions.

Arlington Heights high school band, under the leadership of W. N. Sears, will furnish the band music for the day. That organization will lead the grand parade to be held at one o'clock sharp.

The health judging will begin promptly at 10 o'clock at the log cabin in order that it will not conflict with any of the other events of the day. At the same time the horseshoe pitching contests will start. Henry Bettin, the winner of last year will again be a strong contender this year, as it is now unusual for him to make many successive ringers. Fred Appleyard of Dist. 45 won this contest two years ago. A half hour later the baseball games will start. Dist. 17 will play against Dist. 43 and No. 49 vs. 54.

Following the grand parade, Supp. Tobin will announce the health champion. The harmonica chorus in Dist. 48 was a big attraction last year. Every pupil in that one room country school, who is old enough to properly carry a one plays a harmonica. Dist. 43 has a number of drums.

Preceded by a 15 minute band concert, the athletic events will start. Dist. 45 which had a walk-away last year, will not be so fortunate this time, as there are some strong competitors. Some of the pupils have been preparing for these track events ever since last fall. A total of 28 rural schools are expected to participate in this festival. As announced in the Cook County Herald Tuesday, the festival for Division two will be held next Wednesday.

Arlington Park Dining Room to Open May 27th

The dining room at Arlington Park will open May 27 for the first time when a special dinner will be served in the club dining room for members of the jockey club and the general public. The management also contemplates opening the public dining room upon the same date. It is possible that special service will be given on Memorial day. The lunch counters are being enclosed in screen.

Water and Street Department Issue Public Warnings

The Herald has been asked to broadcast two warnings this week to the people of Arlington Heights. The first of these refers to the dumping of rubbish at the village dumping grounds. Fred C. Hinz, street commissioner announces that for the benefit of the general public the "dumping" hours have been changed from Friday to Saturday afternoons, only. No dumping of rubbish will be permitted at any other time. Arrest will follow any who do not obey this order.

The second warning applies to every city water consumer. Until such time that the new pump is in operation, there is a great shortage of water. It must be used sparingly and not for sprinkling. Engineer Kolling warns the public that it is impossible to maintain fire protection unless the people will cooperate in this matter.

Quick Service for Pigs

Fred Hahnfeld of Palatine inserted a classified adv. in last Friday's issue, advertising 26 pigs. He ordered the adv. inserted three weeks. The paper came out Friday and the next day the pigs were sold. He was so pleased with the results that he told the editor to keep the refund.

Such response to our want ads. is not unusual. This paper is read by so many people the opportunity to get buyers is several times of that of ordinary newspapers. It is nothing unusual for buyers to travel 20 to 25 miles in answer to classified ads.

OUR CHURCHES

Methodist Notes

Mr. Leigh Hunt, organist at Park Ridge, will be the guest organist Sunday night at 7:45. Mr. Hunt is an organist of some note, having served some of the larger churches in the east and broadcasted concerts over station WOR, New York and other stations.

An added attraction will be the Park Ridge male quartette. Unusually fine music. You are welcome.

Sunday morning, Mr. Billman will close the series of sermons "If I Had But One Sermon to Preach." The vested choir will sing.

Monday night the men will entertain the ladies at ladies' night. Dinner will be served at 6:30. All men whether or not they are members of the club, are urged to come and bring their best girl. A splendid program is being arranged.

Miss Celia Hausam was hostess to the Y. W. F. M. S. last Monday night. The dinner and the program following was in the nature of a testimonial to Mrs. Richard Bray on the anniversary of her year as sponsor for this group of young women.

"And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin. And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these." Matt. 6:28-29.

These words of the Master from His sermon on the Mount, will be the basis of the sermon Sunday morning.

The pep party given by the Walther League was a rousing success. The committee kept us busy singing pep songs and giving yells, enjoying the entertainment and the delicious foods. It was decided to undertake a drive for new members during the next three months. The membership was divided into two teams, the Cubs and the Sox playing a city series. Kurt Noack is piloting the Cubs aggregation and Selma Froyke is hosting the Sox Club. When the series closes the losing team will treat the winners to a good time.

Our juniors, not to be outdone, had a social gathering on May 7, which will be remembered by those who took part in it. The loyalty, enthusiasm, and willingness shown by this organization certainly deserves commendation.

The mission talk by Missionary George Kuehn on furlough from India was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience which came to hear it. In a highly interesting manner he pictured the life and religion of the Hindus and presented the difficulties, the nature and the success of their work amongst these benighted people.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS
Since "Red Duncan" got hooked he is seldom seen at meetings—yep, he is the bird who was going to rule the roost. Where, oh, where have I heard that before.

Well man these are a few things that will be discussed at the next meeting, that's why we want to see you there and get your ideas of what a good time are, we have a few bucks in the treasury burning to be spent and we want your ideas as to how to spend them. Did you ever hear of a better idea. Think of it, we are not asking you for money, but ideas of how to spend it. Can you beat that? No, well then let's see you at the meeting—and don't, for goodness sake, let other pressing business needs detain you, because where in the world can you have a better subject to discuss—the spending of money to have a good time.

OBITUARY

Louise Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kolling, was born February 18, 1868. She attended the Arlington Heights schools and was married to George, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Klehm, in October, 1891. Four children were born to them. Two sons, George and Edwin, both called from this life in young manhood and two daughters, Henriette and Lillian. Mrs. Klehm died in the Mayos hospital at Rochester, May 8, 1928.

Besides her husband and daughters, Mrs. Klehm leaves to mourn her sad passing away, her mother, Mrs. John Kolling and one sister, Mrs. Scholman, and two brothers, Henry Kolling and Herman Kolling all of Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Klehm was a member of the first Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights. She was a valued member of the mission society and the Womans Bible Class of that church, where she was always a helpful and deeply interested worker. She was also a member of the Wmson's club in which she filled many honored positions and in all these organizations she will be deeply missed. Always a gentle, quiet home body, few realized the depths and devotion to her faith and her family in the character of Mrs. Klehm.

For some time Mrs. Klehm had been in delicate health, and finally was persuaded to go to the famous Mayos at Rochester for treatment. Her youngest daughter, Miss Lillian, accompanied her mother. Both had taken treatment, and Mrs. Klehm was looking forward to coming home with her daughter, when suddenly, May 8, her heart ceased to beat, and as it were in the twinkling of an eye the spirit of the faithful wife and devoted mother had flown and only the frail little worn body was left to return to her waiting loved ones.

The funeral was held in the family home Thursday, May 11th, where a large concourse of friends and relatives came to pay their respects to a true and loyal friend. The Presbyterian church quartette, Mrs. E. A. Elfeld, Mrs. C. Lorenzen, Messrs. Conior and Rexford Volz sang. The flower tributes from business firms, old friends of Mr. Klehm were really magnificent in their unrivaled beauty and in the large number of such offerings. The funeral sermon was given by the Rev. H. A. Kossack, her pastor, who spoke words of appreciation and comfort and hopes to her sorrow stricken husband and daughters, to all who love and miss her.

The pall bearers were: Mr. A. F. Volz, N. M. Banta, P. J. Moss, A. F. Chidley, H. F. Muller of Arlington Heights and Mr. Hall of Des Plaines.

Those from out of town attending the funeral were Mr. D. W. Gamble, principal of Arlington Heights high school from Oak Park when Mrs. Klehm's sons attended; Mrs. Cook, Mr. A. Billop from the city; Mrs. Frank Schram and two daughters from Crystal Lake, Mrs. Emil Sigwalt from Lake Zurich. In addition to those were many of Mr. Klehm's florist friends and business associates.

District No. One
To Vote on Bonds
Complete Payment

District No. 1, on York Street, north of Lawrence Ave. is holding a special election Saturday, May 26 to vote on a bond issue of $3500.00 for the purpose of paying for the completion of the present building and making the new school house and equipment therein adequate for the needs of the district.

This bond issue does not mean any additional taxation, in fact it will relieve the district from paying cash or issuing anticipation warrants for this purpose. The present law which permits this issue goes out of existence July 1 and it is important that the issue be passed by the voters prior to that date.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Automobile, motor bus—
How they chase and bother us
Always speeding, speeding;
Kill a man? Don't care a cuss—
What's the use to make a fuss—
When the tale you're reading?
Automobile, motor bus
Swiftly they will carry us
When we need their speeding.

Speeding, speeding, everywhere.
On the earth and through the air.
And the faster we go the faster
we want to go: flying, motoring,
or simply hiking by means of our own locomotion. If we would use all these new means of travel as carefully as we should it would be a blessing.

Too often we become crazed for speed and more speed, and misuse
that which might otherwise be a blessing. After all, this desire to go swiftly, to live swiftly, brings us all too soon to the end of life's journey. Better slow down!

So? Laudermilk is going to lay out Stonegate, in curves and nooks. Splendid! Just what we have long advocated for public as well as private grounds. I can show you new realtors, a winding path laid out by these, not too strong hands. We called it "The Daisy Wind." It was on a little prairie mound, surrounded by wild flowers, a thing of real beauty.

On the prairie we strove to preserve the prairie flowers, as most suited to the soil, as well as the surrounding. The broad leaved resin weed is the real prairie palm and far more decorative than the cannas or elephant ears. On either side the daisy wind are wild roses, black eyed susans and ox-eye daisies. And the walk itself graveled (sparsely) — because we could get no more — with flags of broken pavement — come and see it.

So? This weird realtor is laying out this attractive new sub, to have "roads" instead of plain old streets. Good for you, Mr. Laud-ermilk! Long have I urged with almost tears to have this ugly old name of "Hickory" changed to
"Meadow Road" — long time a real road through a real meadow, but the appropriateness, and the poetry off hath no appeal.

Wonder how many boys and girls
gave "mother" a glad, glad, day Sunday. One little mother I know
a not far away neighbor found her
day and in suspense and anxiety.
Her son left for the city. Not planning to stay late. Dark came,
ten o'clock, midnight, and the lad
had not returned. Knowing the crowds of autos he must encounter
coming home in his car his parents suffered with apprehension.

Not until Monday morning did
the mother receive word that her son had spent the night with old friends in the city. Well, that was anything but a happy ending of Mothers Day for her. However, as the Bible has it "weeping lasteth
for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." So did joy come to that worried mother.

Wish I could know when I see a boy scout. I have read their pledge, and know all about their promise to do at least one kind act
each day. I've been fearing some of these boys who run over other people's property, and ungrateful of even the kindly civilities of life are not remembering their pledges. To be a true "boy scout"
is a splendid thing, let us have more of them in place of vandals.

"Out of a job." Can you imagine how it would seem to be tramping for miles and miles asking for work. No money in your pocket. Because the last man you worked for trumped some damage
to his property through your work and refused to pay you. Well such a man came to our door last week.
Actually wanting to work. For weeks we had been trying to get some one to do much needed work.

And no one could be found.

This man had an honest face,
and was as clean as his working clothes allowed him to be. For a week he worked as I did. He believe possible any man left on earth could work. Everybody in our neighborhood wanted him. Not exorbitant wages did he ask either. A chef, and a textile pattern maker by rights. He was willing to do any work you set him
to do. He earned big wages but did not ask for such.

There is a group on Miner and Douglas Avenue, who are grateful for the wonderful help given to them when most needed by one man with an honest face "out of a job" and all are hoping he gets his layout as chef and just the job he is fitted to work at and good luck to him.

There are those here who hold loving remembrance of their some time teacher, Miss Corbett, and will also recall her niece "Jerry Conly" whose orchestra was well known to the radio family all over the country. For some time past
she has presided over the Saturday Night Club at the Shoreland Hotel. Last Saturday night she bade the club good bye preparatory to sailing for Europe.

Miss Conley takes with her the orchestra which has won sufficient fame at the Shoreland to warrant an invitation to play at the popular Arts Hall in Paris on July 13. She is sailing from Montréal on the Montclair June 22.
The first stop will be London
where she will lead her orchestra
at the Fourth of July party given for Americans at one of the leading hotels. Thence she will proceed to the continent where she will spend the summer with the Paris Arts Ball, one of the high lights of the trip. The daily gaze-tetter under headlines "Jerry Conly gets Paris Band Bid" with Miss

Great old month this is for parties, and especially May parties.
So many of us have birthdays in May. And so much of joy and surprises all around us. Can we ever realize when we have a few clouds in our sky and a run of disappointments how much we have of love, mercy and peace?
How much of gladness and of beauty? Think of all this.

I wish I might deserve the good
Each day God sends to me;
That I might merit as I should
And always thankful be.

Comes gracious giving on the air
That brings good news today,
A loved one coming who will share
The blossom feasts of May.

There's generous giving in that air.
In yonder maple tree,
The sweetest song by mortals
heard
Fills air and space for me.

The trailing of a lilac spray
against the window pane—
Where tossing branches swing and sway—
And showers of fragrance rain.

A humming bird with ruby throat
Tapped on the window pane
Just yesterday, as if he wrote
I'll surely come again.

The birds, flowers and starry
skies
Where song and color blend
I pray once more with misty
"God make me merit all you send."

Read a review of humorous
books by Thomas L. Masson, entitled: "We are bigger—but are we funnier? A pretty good review it was—and we do quite agree with the Review, that humor is becoming a lost art. That few people can be funny all through a book

of two, three or five hundred pages. Even Will Rogers becomes tiresome after the 'steenth page,
and Will Rogers is hard to beat.
Read the so-called funny columns
in newspapers, and magazines and you soon yawn over them. Yes,
we are bigger—but we are not fun-nier.

"I see by the papers" that the priests and preachers over at Glen Ellyn have a get together once a month when they discuss problems
in their line of work and I believe
have "a bite and a sup" or is it a smoke? At any rate it is a fine thing if all leaders of Christian peoples believe in the spiritual part of the Christian faith and hope they should be willing for an hour or two to forget the man
made part of their creeds, and be as brethren in Christ. And the Christians hope.

Speaking of early gardens, are your peas up? Mine are, on top of the shelf in a tin box. But our friend, Mrs. Louise Scharringhausen, who always does things on time has garden peas in blossom.
Mrs. Simmeson says in the vicinity of Earlville her old home the farmers had to replant or sow their oats and wheat, because of the freeze. Never mind, the farmer sows in faith and he always has something to reward his efforts.

It seems strange that so many good people dread the increasing years of life. Every road we travel
has some attractions the farther
on we go. Every good and worthwhile thing in life grows more precious with the years. So many things are perfected by age, why not believe that we mortals shall
be. Old trees, old books, old friends—how precious they become with the years. Cheer up! the best is yet to be!

Why do we fret and fash about
An added year or two,
As though a cloud of dread and doubt
The future held from view.

Here let us vision with clear eyes
The good that years may bring,
The same bright stars will crowd
the skies
The same song birds will sing.

The things that here we truly prize
Perfected by the years,
The love that shines from friendly eyes
Makes gems of pearly tears.

The elm tree towering to the sky
The sturdy age old oak
Years added value passing by—
Why should we sigh or croak?

Because another year we add
Since lilacs bloomed last May—
How much we've gained to make us glad
With every passing day.

There are so many precious things
Treasured when they are old,
Rare last, old trees, old songs
youth sing
Old ivory and old gold.

The glory of the dawning day,
Is rivaled by its close;
Life greets on its farther way
A crowning aureole glows.

The beauty age brings to a tree—
The age perfected gem,
Why not believe to you and me
Age gives—as unto them?

Old lace, old ivory and old trees
Old books, grace years will lend,
To all who be, as well as these
Comes added worth—my friend.

BE A BOOSTER
ALL THE TIME

I'd rather be a booster than a
knocker any day.
I'd rather tinge with hope than
doubt the words I have to say;
I'd rather miss my guess
On another man's success
Than to view his bitter struggle
and prophesy his fall.
I would rather say "he's coming"
Than "he's going," when I'm summing
Up the labors of my brothers, I would rather boost them all.

I would rather speak the kind
thing than the mean things
any day.

I'd rather swing the baton than a hammer, let me say.
I would rather sing my rhyme
In a sort of two-step time
Than let it drag its dirges in gloomy heavy style.
I would rather say "God bless you!"
And with words of cheer impress
you

Than to preach about your follies
all the while.

I would rather be a booster than a
knocker any day.

I'd rather praise than criticize in any line I have to say.

I'd rather not be wise
At the cost of other's sighs.

I would rather see the good things
than the evil that men do;
I would rather far be wrong
When I boost a man along.

Than be perfect in my judgment
but make everybody blue.

BIG FESTIVAL
NEXT WEEK AT
SCHILLER PARK

The annual festival of Divisions
two and four will be held next week
Wednesday at the Schiller Park
forest preserve. Messrs. H. J.
Byrd of division two and Callahan
of division four, are intent upon making this festival the biggest of any that will be held in the county
this year.

The program will open with a grand parade at 10:15, led by one of the high school bands of Chicago. At 10:30 will occur the champion baseball game between the representatives of the two divisions. Schiller Park will represent Division two and River Grove hopes to have the honor to represent division four. The latter school was the champion last year.

The division health contest is set for 11:30. This contest will be held under the supervision of county nurses, Mr. Flynn, Woolsey
and Miss Zachocki, with Miss Fulmer and Dr. Wright as the directing head. Prominent doctors will judge each one entered. The healthiest scholar in each of the schools chosen are "under training" for the great event.

Following the picnic luncheon,
special numbers will be given by the individual schools, and include
folk dances and other events.
Among the unusual offerings will be a company of ukulele players of Division sixty.

The schools which will participate in this event are in the townships of Wheeling, Elk Grove, part of Maine, Leyden, Norwood Park
and Proviso. On account of the uncompleted Irving Park boulevard bridge, those from Wheeling and Elk Grove township should cross the Des Plaines river on Higgins road.

The parents are especially invited to attend this festival. It is given for the benefit and as an outing for the school children, and the latter should have the opportunity to attend.

The Best Story of The Week

Typewriter Won't Stand So Much Hell

There is a local typewriter in Arlington Heights that is 20 years behind the times. It objects so strongly to the use of the word "hell" that the letter "I" has been snapped off
the keyboard. That was the excuse that the owner of the typewriter gave when the editor asked him why all of his "I's" were capital "I's." The man's conscious did not stop the epithets, but the typewriter did.

Editor Runs Away

The editor of the Herald has heard so much about the pitfalls of a movie career that when a movie
camera was turned his way one day
last week, the Ed. took to his heels.
He thought he had escaped a movie
career, but Carl Behrens now reports that Charley Chaplin in his plainest days had nothing over the heels that the editor showed to that showing, giving the scribe the opportunity to buy the film in order to keep it away from the comics.
In newspaperdom that would be called graft journalism. Behrens calls it "plucking an easy mark."

Finds House Raising Dangerous

Frank Meier was assisted by his brother, Arthur, and Jim McElhose
at a house raising bee Tuesday night. It was rather disastrous to the two helpers, and if it had been a regular house instead of one for birds, they might not have lived to tell the story. A plank hit one on the head, another one escaped injury by a wild leap that landed him in the center of the garden. Frank hopes the birds will appreciate their abode—his keeper did not.

$100 Profit vs. a Suit of Clothes

Have you got $25 in the bank?
If so, keep away from Carl Behrens.
If he catches you upon the street
or in his office, and you escape
signing a contract for one of those lots in Stonegate, you are a better talker than Carl. There is an occasional man who is so stubborn
that he absolutely refuses to admit
even to himself, the profit sharing possibilities of Stonegate.

It was one of these men Wednesday, who saved his $25 even if he did get wet. It was raining pitch forks outside when Stonegate
sales talk was put in his direction.
He hated to get wet, but out he went.

Here is the point—Behrens can not understand why a man would rather pay for the pressing of a good suit of clothes which will cost him a dollar or more, when he might have bought a lot in Stonegate and, inside of six months,
made a profit of $100.

Some men are just that onery,
Carl.

Steamed Up and Ready to go; but He Slept On

It was closing time at the Arlington theatre and still a customer remained in his seat. Manager Hei-

man sought to arouse the man and the only reply he got was "I have to get steam up before I can go home." The patron is an engineer on one of the large cranes in use in Arlington Heights. It took the combined efforts of Mr. Heiman and Mr. Hills to convince the man that they would get the steam up
if he would only go home. The fellow came back the next day and claimed that he never woke up until after he reached the highway,
and complained because Messrs.
Heiman and Hills did not keep their part of the bargain.

Daring Feat Performed
By Bensenville Ry. Man

Wednesday evening, May 9, several auto loads of people from Bensenville and surrounding towns
witnessed a scene that Cash and Carry Pyle probably would offer a fair sum for the moving picture
rights, if there were any pictures taken.

After continuous arguments
based on the depth of Salt Creek
at Wooddale, where a Bensenville
young man had recently drowned,
the question as to the depth of the creek, the opinions of people differing from 7 feet to 27 feet. The argument grew more interesting until one, E. C. Bartholmey, a local railroad man offered to wager $10
that he could walk from bank to bank on the bottom of the creek.
This was quickly covered by another railroad man, Frank Koebelman.
Others feeling that they were sure of winning a bet were tempted to make smaller bets on the feat. It was decided to leave Bensenville at 7 p. m. The car carrying the performer was followed by 12 other autos loaded with people, who were anxious to see the question settled.

Every precaution was taken to prevent any fatalities. Ropes, hooks, weights, bathing suits, pul-
lomotors and first aid kits were rushed to the scene. After donning his bathing suit Mr. Bartholmey jumped into the water and took a little swim around and then returned to the shore to begin his walking feat,
which, to the surprise of many, he accomplished very easily altho for about 8 feet in the middle of the creek his head was beneath the water, but his hands, extended above
the water, plainly showed that he was still walking on the bottom.

All bets were settled and the following day some boys fishing in the creek claimed that they had caught some fish which had a man's footprints on their backs and they believed that these fish had assisted Mr. Bartholmey over the deepest part of the creek, but as our report is in no way a fish story, we don't take any stock in the fish report. At any rate it has been proven that the creek is too deep for small boys to go bathing in without good swimmers being with them.

TO OUR PATRONS
in Arlington Heights and Vicinity

In order that the milk patrons of Arlington Heights and vicinity may not be unduly influenced by the public announcement of the Bowman Dairy Company, which is seeking to establish a route in Arlington Heights, the undersigned dairies take this means to bring to your attention a few facts.

Arlington Heights today has as fine a dairy service as it is possible to create in any town. No Chicago bottling plant is conducted under more sanitary methods.

The local dairies by the expenditure of considerable money have been able to provide milk to their customers that is the equal of any milk that is sold anywhere no matter what price is charged.

Our dairy herds are inspected not only by us, but continually by the state and county inspectors, insuring you that our milk is just as safe as any other milk.

Milk
Cream
Whipping Cream
Buttermilk
Chocolate Milk
Butter and
Cottage Cheese

We receive our milk from nearby farms, enabling us to deliver milk to you in the morning, which has been taken from the cows the day before.

Our pasteurization is not done in a haphazard manner; it is ALSO done scientifically, i. e., heated to 145 degrees, held at this temperature for 30 minutes, and then rapidly cooled through enclosed cooling apparatus, where it is chilled to 42 degrees, bottled by an automatic filling and capping machine, and kept on ice until delivered. If this were not the case, we could not pass state inspection, and carry a state certificate.

Our machinery may not be as large as that used by the Bowman Dairy Company, but it is just as up-to-date, and does the work just as thoroughly.

Our milk also reaches you untouched by hands.

Our wagons speak for our dairy.

Last, but not least, we are home town concerns, having our business in Arlington Heights, trading in Arlington Heights, paying taxes in Arlington Heights, and interested in Arlington Heights people.

As Arlington Heights people, we ask you to trade with your home town concerns. Our aim is to give you the best milk and service possible.

It was erected by Mr. Joe Braks, who will take all orders and anything pertaining to flowers, and give prompt service.

The Card and Bunco Party followed by luncheon and entertainment by the children's choir at St. Martha's hall Wednesday evening, was very well attended. Twenty-eight tables were filled with players. The entertainment and musical numbers were enjoyed most of all. The young folks acted their parts very natural, encouraged by the hearty applause of the audience.

Jolly amateur boxing matches were staged at St. George Academy under the auspices of the Father's Club. In one bout Howard Yehl, of Morton Grove beat his opponent. In another bout Richard Blamenser of Niles Center lost out to his partner Carl Schmidt of Niles Center, also a student at this school, is a member of the school orchestra.

Glenview M. E. Church

Sunday was celebrated as Parents' Day, though the choir were carnations and sang a song about Mothers. The pastor preached on the joint responsibility of parents for the faults and failures of children. Extensive sociological studies place the blame for almost all juvenile delinquency upon the home. Extensive studies by Dr. Starbuck of Iowa University show that in almost every case, the home appears to be partly responsible for child failure. Pastor said that in his experience the same thing is borne out in almost 100 per cent of all cases that have come under his observation. When such a belief is harder than now to prevent their children from going the wrong way.

The second session of the general conference was held in the evening. The most spirited debate occurred on the question of making out church take an extreme pacifistic position. The motion was lost by a small plurality. The next session will be held next Sunday night at 7:30. Great questions are in the air. Echoes from Kansas City can be heard even in Glenview.

No choir rehearsal next week.

It will be set 7 feet further north as Oakton street is to be 80 feet wide.

Young Peoples Society Attend Evanston Rally

Sunday last the Young Peoples Society of Jerusalem Lutheran church attended the Waltham League rally at Evanston Lutheran church. More than 200 young people of the North Shore zone of the Waltham League, assembled in the spacious auditorium of the church's new school building. A business meeting was held in which an interesting report was given concerning the Chicago hospice speeches were made in the interest of Arcadia, Mich., and Milhurst, Ill. summer and vacation resorts to encourage the young people to spend their vacation at either of these places. Luncheon was served by the Evanston Society. In the evening the Evanston Society provided entertainment instrumental and vocal music and a playlet. However the greater share of the evening was taken up by a most interesting, as well as educational, lecture on "The Rev. O. Sir" given by Rev. O. Sir. The Rev. Sir showed slides of the most interesting but now poor country. The pictures were taken by the Reverend himself, and had them made into slides. The lecture was most interesting and even the otherwise restless young people sat spellbound and listened most attentively for more than two hours. Many ludicrous incidents were experienced by the lecturer. For example that one night he slept in a German featherbed in the Holy Land. In conclusion, the Rev. gentleman remarked that he had traveled far and near, thru many at least the most important lands and cities of Europe and America, had seen many beautiful places and cities, but all were surpassed, even Pasadena, Cal., in beauty by Evanston, the most beautiful of all. We don't want to dispute the Rev. gentleman, but would like to remind him that he has as yet not seen Morton Grove.

Glenview Troop 55 Scores at Cabin

Saturday, at the Fun Rally at the Cabin-In-the-Woods, troop 55 was represented by five scouts, William Carper, Nesbit Mowery, Harold Oppen, John Woods and Gilbert Mueller. A small proportion of the troop, but they scored two firsts and a second. In the first event of the afternoon, which was a shoe scramble, with a race attached to almost one fourth of a mile, Harold Oppen beat the entire field, of 150 scouts, and Nesbit Mowery took second place. With only two entrants from each troop, our boys could not have done much better. The Wood hunt came next and our boys must have been wool-gathering too much to gather wool. The third event was a fire building contest, in which 55 took first place. Our old rivals, troop 13, got third and fourth in the shoe scramble, third in the fire building, and second in attendance. It was a lot of fun. There was a Court of Honor at which many awards were conferred, including one much coveted Eagle Badge.

Nine boys are registered for the summer camp of the Chicago Council, Camp Checaugau, near Whitehall, Michigan. They are Frank Appleyard, William Carper, Gerhard Gulder and Winton Weyer from the Stage; Robert Johnson and Harold Oppen of the Wolves; Kenneth Zimmerman and Gilbert Mueller of the Foxes; and John Woods of the Rattlesnakes. We expect to have a few more before camp starts.

Two boys from the Maple school district joined the troop last Friday night at Tenderfoot. They are Frizze and Walter Wandroik. Two more are ready to join.

Monday night after supper, the gang assembled at the Methodist church to work on the lawn, as a Good Turn. When dark came on, they moved en masse upon the Bada estate, where in the orchard, surrounded by apple blossoms, a fire was lighted and a camp fire ceremonial was held.

A new institution was inaugurated, called the Chief's Decoration. The boy found worthy wears the Chief's neckerchief for the evening and has his name inscribed upon it. Harold Oppen's name is the first one on the neckerchief, but since he was not present the next in line, John Woods, received the honor. John was ready to join the scouts several weeks before becoming twelve years old. You will remember that he joined on his birthday. He has repeated, in that before the month's probation required before becoming a second class scout was expired. John had done all the tests required and was waiting for the time to come. Monday night was exactly a month from his investiture date. That kind of spirit will make any troop. His father awarded him the Second Class pin. Gilbert Mueller received the same rank, and was decorated by his father. Gerhard Gulder received a Merit badge for interpreting, and Henry Metz became a Star scout, having won five Merit badges.

Save time, energy and money
—don't market every day

GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

It's such a relief not to have to go to market every day. Two or three times a week will do the job—with energy, time and money saved—if you have a General Electric Refrigerator.

For even the smallest model is so designed that it can hold a generous store of foods—several days' supply for the average family. And its temperature, of course, is just right to keep meats wholesome, milk sweet and salads crispy.

The General Electric Refrigerator actually makes a minimum of floor space yield a maximum of food space. That's because the chilling chamber is incredibly compact. And housekeepers have found that the up-on-legs models make it so easy to keep the floor under them clean.

You will notice, too, that the General Electric has no belts or fans or drain pipes. That it has no machinery under the cabinet, inside—or in the basement. You will be glad that it needs absolutely no oiling. And your bills for electricity will tell you the pleasant story that this perfect refrigeration actually is economical.

In fact, now that the fifteen years of experiment in the General Electric laboratories has produced this simple, quiet, efficient refrigerator, there's really no reason for being without the comforts that it can give you. Already more than fifty thousand General Electric Refrigerators are bringing new comforts to American homes.

There are many models—at a wide range of prices. Get full information about them by writing us for a booklet which is completely descriptive.

Baseball
Sunday's game could not be classed as a "good" ball game from any angle yet the attending crowd stood by and seemed to enjoy it. The boys scored every inning. They did everything, walked, fanned, hit doubles, triples and assisted by an error on the part of the N. C. third baseman, Teddie was able to make one of his drives out to right center stretch into a homer. But if nothing else it gave them good batting practice and increased individual batting averages. Next Sunday East Maine will play a strong Wilmette team on the Wilmette diamond, located on the Gross Point road (Ridge Ave.) one block south of Lake street. A strong support from fans is needed and desired, so if you haven't a car of your own, get in touch with someone who has, they'll be glad to take you along. Come on everybody, show the north siders what a big following your East Maine team has.

One's Honest Opinions
I remember a passage of one of Queen Elizabeth's great men as advice to his friend: "The advantage," said he, "I had upon others at court was that I always spoke as I thought, which being not believed by them, I both preserved a good conscience and suffered no damage from that freedom," which, as it shows the vice to be older than our times, so does it that gallant man's integrity to be the best way of avoiding it."—Exchange.

Wheeling Choir Visits Old Peoples Home
Twelve members of the Presbyterian church choir and several friends motored to Elgin on Sunday afternoon, where they visited the Old Peoples Home. A program was rendered to an elderly, but most appreciative audience, on the spacious sunparlor of the home, under the direction of Mr. J. E. Barrett. The choir sang several numbers. A friend of the Barretts, Miss Sheila of Chicago, entertained with several readings. Rev. E. L. Shaw delivered an address, appropriate and inspiring to all. Several junior members of the party, John Barrett and Hudson Holtje, contributed to the program with their Mothers day recitations. The afternoon proved a most delightful one, both for the entertained and entertainers. The home is beautifully located on the heights of Elgin and attractively furnished. It is a very well kept home with a most home-like atmosphere and according to the occupants, it is a very satisfactory second to private home life.

Mark Fisher Rides In Airplane; Produces Fast Peppy Show

After Mark's recent inauguration into the deep mysteries of navigation, he has been of a flighty turn of mind. Planes are now common with Mark and they thrill him no more.

All this comes from a recent experience which Mark encountered. He was taken for his first airplane ride just a week ago, and besides being a novel experience it served to give him a brand new idea.

As a result, Mark has decided to call his next show at the Oriental starting Sunday, May 20, "Top of the World." His audiences will be carried along in hazy clouds, a perfect heaven of melodious syncope and harmony, all accompanied by Mark's gifted velvety-toned voice. He and the Merry-Mad gang are all set for an aerial trip through the Milky Way, and will show their fans just how the Bremen fliers felt while winging their lonely way over the vast body of salt water.

At the end of the flight, Mark's gang will croak triumphantly over their successful trip and a grand finale will ensue—one of the speediest, peppiest and most colorful ever brought before a Chicago audience. Mark has at last come into his own, and he is truly sitting on "top o' the world."

"Legion of Condemned" Comes to The Uptown

Considered a star by Hollywood and yet unknown to Broadway is the fate of Fay Wray, who has one of the leading roles in "The Legion of the Condemned," Paramount's companion picture to "Wings," which comes to the Uptown theatre next Monday, May 21.

A little more than a year ago Miss Wray was selected to play the part of Mitzi in Eric Von Stroheim's "The Wedding March" and Von Stroheim made the selection of his leading woman himself.

Adler, Weil and Herman, known as the "California Humming Birds" on the stage and in their Victor records, and who will be stars of Frankie Master's stage show, "Pagoda Land," beginning Monday, May 21, bear the further distinction of being the favorite entertainers of some of America's most popular screen stars in the Hollywood studios.

The trio have an original and clever act, with their little "peripatetic" piano, and harmony reigns supreme when they crown their melodious songs. This trio is known all over the country and it has a distinctive niche carved for itself in the ranks of showmen. Gus Mulcahy, harmonica virtuoso, is also featured in this especially colorful offering, with its unusually large cast, which includes Irene Taylor and Chester Hale's Chesterettes.

Kvale and Collegians Offer "Mission Bells" At Norshore Theatre

Norshore Theatre patrons will be delightfully entertained when they make their weekly visit to their favorite movie house next week, beginning Sunday, May 20. Al Kvale and the Jazz Clown, is preparing what he believes to be one of the most harmonious and colorful of any presentation he has heretofore offered to his fans. The stage show will be entitled "Mission Bells," and will be a combination of soothing melody and dancing feet. Al and his clowns are all set to blast forth with their entranced instruments, in a toe-ticking array of torrid syncope and rhythm.

Ramon Navarro, co-starring with Joar Crawford in an all star cast, comes to the screen in his latest vehicle since the "Student Prince," entitled "Across to Singapore."

"Dragnet" Draws Record Crowds To Roosevelt Doors

"Shoot first and ask questions afterwards!"

That's the advice George Bancroft gives to his men in "The Drag Net," the Paramount picture which is now drawing record crowds to the doors of the Roosevelt theatre.

Bancroft takes the part of a fearless detective lieutenant in this melodrama of the eternal warfare between police and the organized crooks of a great city. The gangsters get so flustered with their law violations in a certain district that Bancroft is transferred to that section with orders to clean them out.

Stacking his life on a bold move he walks into the social headquarters of the gangsters and gives them notice that they must clear out of the district in ten days. They make their answer with bullets.

The story of this thrilling action picture starts out with a murder trial in progress, and it keeps moving into one tense situation after another until the final smashing climax when Bancroft, single-handed, meets seven gangsters in a fight for his manhood, his love and revenge.

Jannings Causes Gasps At McVickers Theatre

Critics hailed Emil Jannings' production, "The Way of All Flesh" as the greatest characterization in the history of the screen.

Many persons asked whether it would be surpassed.

It has. Jannings has surpassed his greatest effort in his new production, "The Street of Sin," now in its second record week at Balaban & Katz McVickers theatre.

The star has chosen the colorful slums of London's Limehouse for the background of his latest characterization, that of a giant "bruiser" who rules the rattle of the gutters with his fists.

He has two leading women, one a saint and one a sinner. Jannings goes almost all the way through the picture a very devil of a man, cruel, lustful and cunning, using his strength as the scepter of his sway over the ruffians of Limehouse. His regeneration comes after a terrible ordeal that almost costs the life of Fay Wray.

Billie Dove Comedy At Chicago Theatre

One of the most notable and best-balanced supporting casts ever used in a First National film offering supports beautiful Billie Dove in her latest starring picture, "The Yellow Lily," coming to the Chicago theatre Monday, May 21.

In the principal roles alone, eleven notable players appear. But there has been no distinction made between minor and major roles in the selection of players.

Jane Winton, wearing a blonde wig, portrays a notorious actress of Budapest and sweetheart of the here, Nicholas Soussanin enacts an effective and very dramatic role as the heroine's brother, Marc MacDemott and Bodil Rosing are the Hungarian Archduke and Archduchess respectively. Charles Puffy plays a comedy role as mayor of a small mountain town in Hungary.

"Roman Nights," a stunning stage sensation, will be the floor offering on this already delightful program. It is one of the mingled comedy and spectacular grandeur coming to a smashing climax in a thunderous and realistic chariot race, performed on the stage.

Gulbranson Celebrates Golden Jubilee Of His Piano Business Career

Axel G. Gulbranson who started as a poor immigrant boy working for $3 a week fifty years ago is celebrating the golden jubilee of his business career which has carried him to the head of a five million dollar piano manufacturing business, the largest of its kind in the world.

Without influence or pull, Gulbranson rose from the ranks. He climbed to the top by sheer ability. He was born in Oslo, Norway. When he was eleven years old, he migrated to America where his father had a job in an organ factory after school, and on Saturdays. Then when he was a little older, he went to work full time.

Up to the age of forty-five, he was still working for others at a salary which today would be considered small. Then quitting his job as superintendent in a piano factory at an age when most men are too settled to dare such an undertaking, he ventured with his little savings into a business already crowded with a host of competitors. That was twenty years ago. Today Gulbranson's business is the biggest in its field and he is registered fifty important patents in his own name.

"For years people had been experimenting with devices to play pianos automatically," said Mr. Gulbranson. "The first automatic piano was built in this country in 1897. The business was still new and it had been part of my job while working for others to participate in experiments of one sort or another with player-pianos. Millions of pianos sold silent in American homes with no one to play them. I determined to put these silent pianos to musical use."

So Gulbranson rented a small loft, hired a boy to help him and set out on the great adventure. The invention was successful and the business prospered. He sold his entire output to piano manufacturers. Within a few years he occupied the whole of a six story building.

Then came a big opportunity. A piano firm that had gone to the wall had a factory that the creditors wanted to dispose of. Gulbranson and his associates arranged to buy it. He ceased selling player apparatus to other piano manufacturers and installed his own. He built himself. That first year he set 10,000 pianos as his manufacturing goal. The trade snickered. But the end of the year saw his goal reached.

"How did you achieve success?" he was asked.

"The factors around me were content to follow the same routine, doing the same thing in the same way day in and day out," he said. "I did things in a different and better way. I did what I had to do to the best of my ability. When I had finished a task, I knew it was finished."

"I had no friends higher up to pull me to the top. As a matter of fact a young man should never depend on friendship for advancement. I set great store by friendships, but not as a business asset. It is ability, work and results that carry one upward."

"Opportunities exist in far greater measure today than when I started fifty years ago. There are more big opportunities for the average man. To climb high one should begin low. The bottom is the best starting point a young man can have."

"Too few young men are really determined to achieve first place. They do not want it enough to do the necessary work or make the necessary sacrifices."

"I have always practiced careful savings and careful spending. Even when a poor boy, I always managed to put money in the bank."

"Too many young men today think solely in terms of the pay envelope. Forget the immediate compensation. If you deliver the goods salary will take care of itself."

"One finds in many factories and shops workers whose one idea is to do as little as possible, to watch the clock and 'get by' when their hair is gray."

"I believe a young man can make his best start in life away from home. Most young men lean too heavily on their family. Their parents do their thinking for them. A college education is a fine thing if a man can forget it. I believe that three-fourths of the boys attending college today are wasting their time. They may learn how to use a salad fork or what kind of clothes to wear to a garden party, but in most cases they are totally unprepared for practical business careers."

"If I had a son I would by all means have him finish high school. Then I would have him go to work in a factory. Napoleon once said that there was a Marshall's baton in every soldier's knapsack. I believe there is a business presidency in the bench of every workman. Most young men today frown on becoming mechanics. Yet there are far greater opportunities in manufacturing concerns for wide-awake hard working boys than there are in white collar jobs in banks and offices."

"Music should be a great influence in every man's life. Some men believe it is effeminate to show an interest in music. Yet small town bands have produced thousands of the nation's business leaders."

Year by year the Gulbranson business has developed and expanded and the factory now produces many other types of pianos in addition to the player instrument originally made. Regular uprights, grands, art styles, period models and small uprights now go to make up the total output, state that Mr. F. O. Miltzer, who represents Mr. Gulbranson in this community.

Soon after establishing the manufacturing business, Mr. Gulbranson devised a merchandising plan which has revolutionized piano selling. Buying a piano formerly was like taking a pig in a poke. The dealer got the best price he could and the same piano might cover a price range of several hundred dollars. Gulbranson decided to set a standard price and stamp

Community Hall Becomes Reality

Mt. Prospect now has a community hall. The organizations will have a place to hold their meetings which will be more in keeping for such purposes. The village has adopted the plan to utilize in the name of the village, the former school house. That board and the school board agreed on the community hall matter. The arrangement of the building will be in the hands of the village board as will also the renting of it.

The Herald has reliable information that the village will decorate the interior and exterior of the building, making it look like a real community hall. It is not the idea to make money on the proposition, but the various organizations using the hall will be asked to pay for their meeting and expenses attached thereto.

This completes the work started by the Women's Club some time ago. The citizens appreciate the fact that we have a place like the community hall and it will be an asset to the various organizations meeting in the village hall, who need the larger quarters for seating of their members.

Mt. Prospect Baseball Team Takes 2 Straight

The Mt. Prospect baseball team made it two straight Sunday, May 13, when they defeated Des Plaines 10-0.

Slim Larsen pitched good ball for the home nine, holding the visitors to 2 hits besides striking out 8 men during the six innings he pitched. Roy Haas also pitched good ball during his stay on the mound.

The game was played rather loose owing to the poor condition of the field.

Chamber of Commerce Favor House Numbers And Playground Matter

The Chamber of Commerce held their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening.

It was regularly moved and seconded that a window membership sign be secured and each of our members be asked to display same in their windows so the general public may know which of the merchants are members of the chamber.

The chairman of the legislative committee reported progress on the house numbering system and advised that this would come up at the June meeting of the village board.

The playground committee also made its report of the equipment purchased for the municipal playgrounds.

The executive board ordered all bills paid and they also approved the purchase of the stencils to be used on all property purchased by the chamber.

The members of the chamber appointed a committee consisting of J. Gors, William Busse, Jr., Frank J. Bauman and Frank Lueders to wait on the village board at the June meeting to take up the above matters.

Are You Displaying The "May" Sticker

The windshield stickers for this month are at the postoffice and if you will ask for yours you will get it there.

"Mt. Prospect Welcomes You" is the sticker to display on the front of your car. Tell the world that our village welcomes them, one and all, to look us over and they will see what a real town looks like.

Every auto owner should be a booster for Mt. Prospect, as long as they are residents of this village. The Herald wants them to feel that their town is a wonderful place to live in and they should be proud of that fact.

Mt. Prospect has put over a number of things in a big way and these booster slogans is another feather added to its record of achievements.

This idea is being sponsored by the chamber of commerce, which body is doing all in its power to put Mt. Prospect to the fore. A few of the things that the chamber has done, are purchased chairs for the community hall, started the playground, and donated a good sum of money to help pay for equipment. Now follows the windshield stickers campaign, which is being followed by the signs for the progressive merchants.

V. F. W. Play Is Declared Success

The V. F. W. gave a play entitled "Mrs. Tubbs Does Her Bit." Mr. Arthur Flesch, as Mrs. Molly Tubbs, a patriotic mother, cannot be sufficiently complimented, her acting thruout held the audience spell bound. Mrs. Ed. Pingel, as Miss Clingie Vine, a romantic old maid, was a scream in her part.

Mr. John Benici, as Scuffles Tubbs, a son, and his sister, Quennie Sheba Tubbs, (Amanda Gladie) with their many capers, caused many a side ache to the audiences. The balance of the characters: Edward C. Pohlman, as James Scotland Tubbs, one of Uncle Sam's Boys; Elsie West, a Red Cross Nurse (Lorraine Weide) who becomes James's wife; Mrs. Ellen Hickey (Meta Scharinghouse), a kind neighbor; Simon Rubels, the grocery man (John Gerken) Tim Graham, first class private (Arno Schramm); Nelson Redd, one of Uncle Sam's Boys (Paul Holste); Major John Pepper, commander of the camp (William Gerich); Billy Blossom Tubbs, a little fellow (Herman Noll, Jr.), and Panky, the Tubbs' Toddler (Jeanette Pohlman) and Aunt Serenety McDougal, a wealthy old lady (Erna Worley), all did their part in such a manner as to make the play go over as a "knock out."

The orchestra selections by the Black Cat Orchestra, were enjoyed between the acts, as was also the harmonica selections, given by Carl Shetterly.

School Directors Call Mass Meeting

The public school directors have called a meeting of the citizens of district No. 57, for Saturday, May 19, 1928, at 8:30 p. m. daylight saving time.

It is the desire of the directors of district 57 to talk over certain matters with the taxpayers of that district regarding the properties donated for school purposes by Mr. Longquist and Mr. Berry.

The meeting will be held in the assembly hall of the new public school building.

The president, Wm. Pohlman, as well as the clerk, Wm. Kirchhoff, desire the expression of the taxpayers of the district on the matters they wish to put before them. Edwin L. Busse, the other member of the board, is of the same opinion and for this reason the taxpayers of district 57 should attend the meeting.

Gospel Meetings At Elk Grove School

A series of Gospel Meetings will be held in the old school house, District 59, corner Higgins, York and Touhy roads, by Evangelists W. H. Ferguson of Detroit and Wm. Marks of Philadelphia, commencing Monday, May 14, every night at 8:30 new time.

Object: "The Glory of God and Salvation of Soul."

New Fire Truck Rests With Voters

The question of voting on the bond issue of $7,500.00 will come before the public June 2, when the polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 4 p. m.

We all know what the bond issue is for and we also know that it is essential that we have adequate fire protection in our village. With these conditions, is there any reason why we should not go to the polls and vote Yes on the question?

This writer has had the opportunity to see the condition of the present fire truck, not when it stands in the fire house, but when it is on the road and also what it will do at a fire. Having seen the performance of more modern equipment under similar condition, we feel it is the duty of all of the citizens to put their shoulders to the wheel, put the bond issue over, so Mt. Prospect can have the fire fighting equipment, it not only deserves, but needs. This will be a direct benefit to every home owner in the village and it will help each and everyone of Mt. Prospect's loyal citizens.

We are proud of our village and proud of our firemen, but we can not expect them to work with tools that they can not do the proper kind of fire fighting with apparatus that is not up to our standard.

Have you considered the question of a new fire truck as one of your own matters? Stop to look at it in this light. How would you feel if you were so unfortunate as to have a fire loss and because of the fire department not having a pump on their fire truck, your loss would be greater than necessary?

The Herald is proud to have a helping hand in putting this matter before the voters of Mt. Prospect. This paper feels that the citizens of Mt. Prospect will go to the polls on June 2, to approve the bond issue and in this way put their village to the front in the question of giving the people the best possible fire protection they can secure. It is with this in mind that we recommend a "Yes" vote on June 2.

Sunday morning at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, the twin babies of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holste were baptized James Robert and Floyd Richard.

The Lutheran local conference held their regular monthly meeting in Mt. Prospect May 14, at the parsonage of Rev. Mueller. A very good dinner was served by Mrs. Mueller. Sixteen pastors were present.

Mrs. Frank Flesch celebrated her birthday on Monday. A one o'clock luncheon was served, and bunco followed. About 30 friends helped celebrate.

A mixed double bowling tournament was held at "The Recreation" with 48 entries on May 12, 13, and 14. The prize winners were as follows: First prize: Mrs. Karl Petersen, and Mr. Ed. Haberkamp. Second prize, Miss Martha Schott and Mr. Herman Noll. Third prize, Miss M. Israel and Mr. G. Gies. Fourth prize, Mrs. Ed. Haberkamp and Mr. Walter Beigel. Fifth prize, Miss Wilma Schott and Mr. Wm. Busse, Jr.

The Ladies Aid met at Mrs. Geo. Kirchhoff on Thursday, the attendance was very good.

Mt. Prospect has not only good streets, good village officers, good contractors, etc., but, also, wonderful talent, this was most emphatically proven on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday night of last week, at the auditorium of the new public school.

Ask for Gateman At R. R. Crossing

The Mt. Prospect Improvement Association held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening. President Wm. Busse, Jr., called the meeting to order. Secretary Haaks read the minutes and treasurer Keiper read his report; these were both approved as read.

The resolution presented at the last meeting changing the names of the several committees was again approved and upon its passage became a legal amendment to the constitution.

It was also decided that the association go on record as approving the action of the village board in setting June 2 as the day of the special election. It was further understood that the members would use their influences to help the firemen put over the $7,500.00 bond issue for the purchase of a new modern fire truck.

The legislative committee was requested to get in touch with the proper authorities of the C. & N. W. and see what could be done about the depot.

Upon a vote of the members it was decided to write the road master of the C. & N. W. to see if something could be done in the way of having a flagman at both Main street and Emerson street during this busy season. With the great number of cars now on the siding and the amount of switching being done daily, a serious accident may result.

Upon a vote of the members present it was decided the Park Committee secure some uniform signs for the island with the names of the people who donated the landscaping on them.

A letter of thanks and appreciation was ordered sent to Milburn Bros., Consoer Older and Quinlan, the Arlington Landscaping Service and John Gors, thanking them for their parts in helping the Improvement Association solve the problem on the beautifying of the islands.

Elk Grove Couple Celebrate Their Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. August Busse of Elk Grove celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday, May 6, 1928, at their home on Arlington State Road.

About 160 guests were present to wish Mr. and Mrs. Busse continued joy, health and happiness for many years to come.

The silver couple enjoyed the pleasure of having both their mothers able to be with them to wish them well, Mrs. Christine Busse and Mrs. Louise Rohling.

Rev. Zersen of Itasca delivered the anniversary address which was very impressive, and Rev. J. E. A. Mueller spoke on the added joy of being able to have this celebration in the old Busse homestead.

The festive meal was served at 5 o'clock by the members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church of Elk Grove.

The beautiful wedding cake had been prepared by Mrs. L. Rohling and Mrs. Geo. L. Busse. Many of the guests helped to entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meeske gave a one act musical comedy with Mr. Paul Meeske at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Busse, Miss Helen Meeske, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meeske and Mr. Paul Meeske sang several songs.
